REMEMBER THE DECEMBER MEETING, the second Saturday at 2 PM at the City Library.

A Note From the President

Dear Readers:

The beauty of another Kansas snowfall accents the beauty of the country and the city, and covers, too, the appreciation of the work of the many fine people throughout our state.

Our MGS Society greatly appreciated the willingness of the Kansas Genealogical Society of Dodge City to allow three of their members to present one of our most informative Workshops in October. Mrs. Ethel Taylor was assisted by Mrs. Adeline Beck and Mrs. Eilein Bastian in a study of "North Carolinian Ancestral Trails". The Workshop sparked much enthusiasm, and we say sincerely THANK YOU to each of you ladies, and to our Workshop chairman, Mrs. Doris Buckner for making the arrangements.

The November Family Night meeting was well attended to complete an evening filled with fine food, fun, and an entertaining program under the direction of Mrs. Mary Schultz.

Our Regular Saturday afternoon meetings promise some interesting times ahead. The Library Committee will present a "Look at Our Midwest Genealogical Library" in December, with a display of new books. Our gift to the Wichita City Library will also be presented, making many new books available for use by our members. Mrs. Betty McGehee will lead us through a study of Ancestral Related Societies--their requirements and opportunities in January. Mrs. Roberta Uhren, who has toured the U. S. extensively this summer, visited the LDS Library in Salt Lake City, and completed a course in Genealogy will speak in February. March promises another treat from Dr. Keith Johnston, Wichita State University Professor, who will discuss his "Techniques in Genealogy". We invite all those interested in Genealogy to attend. Meetings are at 2:00 p.m. on the second Saturday of each month, and are held in the City Library Auditorium.

May I take this opportunity to wish your families--my best wishes for the Christmas season. I'd like to tell you what a sincere pleasure it has been serving you. I am deeply grateful for your confidence. Sometimes we pass over friends and loved ones without expressing our true feelings. Christmas gives me the perfect opportunity to say thanks and extend best wishes for a truly Happy Christmas and every success in the New Year.

We welcome, too, each of our new members who have joined us recently, and hope we can be of help to you.

Sincerely,
Irene Cortez, President

LIBRARY LORE

Ruby Boman, Librarian

We are happy to report that Mr. and Mrs. Ted Hammer are both recovering nicely after surgery and Harriette is again able to help on the library committee. Welcome back, Harriette.

New members on the library committee are: Margaret Kelley, assistant, Ellen Thomison and Nadine Ritchie.

Mr. David Brehm has again built more shelves for our continuously expanding library. With the magazines arriving regularly, plus all the loans and donations, and the new books that have been ordered by the library committee, we keep rapidly running out of shelf space. David, we all thank you for the time, energy, and hard work--without you we'd be stacking them on the floor.

Have YOU entered your areas of interest in the notebook "Who's Searching Where?". Besides showing other members who are interested in your area, the book is used as a guide in determining which books and magazines would be helpful to more of our members.

BOOK REVIEW

"ABSTRACTS OF EARLY DEEDS OF EDGECOMBE COUNTY, NORTH CAROLINA, 1772-1788, Vol II, by John W. Watson.

A gift from MGS to the City Library, will complement
Mr Watsons Abstracts of Early Deeds of Edgecombe County, North Carolina, 1759-1772, Vol I

Edgecombe county was formed from Bertri Co., in 1732.
When Halifax county was formed from Edgecombe in 1758 the courthouse was in Enfield in the new Halifax Co., Therefore deed books from 1732-1758 for a part of the Halifax deeds.

The book contains abstracts from Deed Books 2,3,E and 4.
An index will be found before each Deed Book. Vol. II will be of interest to any one doing research in Edgecombe County at that particular time.---Margaret Kelley, Ass't Librarian.

George A. Crawford was born in Pine Creek Twp. Clinton Co., Penn. on 27 Jul 1827. His last resting place is in the Grand Canyons of the Colorado.

Epaphroditus Ranson was appointed Receiver of the U. S. Land Office in the spring of 1857. G. W. Clark under the name of Doak, was appointed Register.

On July 10, 1857, Hon. Joseph Williams took the oath of office, of Justice of the Territorial Supreme Court. He arrived soon after at Ft. Scott, with his wife and four sons: Mason, Kennedy, Joseph and William. He had lived many years in Muscatine and Burlington, Iowa.

The following people arrived about August 1857:

B. P. McDonald from Lock Haven, Penn. He was a boy of 17 and he started in the lumber business with his brother Alexander McDonald. Joseph Ray came from Mich. He was the life of any party or company. William Gallaher arrived on the 1st of August from Illinois, originally from Penn. He was appointed Postmaster - which position paid him twenty-four hundred cents a year. He then went into the Army and lost it all. Charles Dimon came from New York. Ed A. Smith, Burns Gordon, Albert H. Campbell and A. R. Allison were also boys of the class of '57.

Geo. H. B. Hopkins settled on the Osage in Sept. 1856. He lived neighbor to Hedrick when the latter was shot down in his own door. The Dentons also lived in the same neighborhood.

On Feb. 6, 1858, Marmaton was incorporated as a town by W. R. Griffith, W. B. Barber, W. H. Krotzer and Horatio Knowles. The town company consisted of T. R. Roberts, J. E. Jones, Orlando Darling and Charles Dimon.

Uniontown was laid out in 1858 by Aleph Goff, W. W. Wright and B. F. Gumm. Uniontown took the place of "Turkey Creek" post office, which was a well known point in the early days of the Territory, when it was in "Russell Twp".

James F. Holt settled on Turkey Creek in the spring of 1858, at the same place where William Holt was located. Mr. James Holt was born in Tennessee, April 15, 1819. William Jackman came from Pennsylvania and settled at Rockford.

Guy Hinton, A. Wilson and his brother, M. Wilson, came from Ohio and settled near Mapleton. Charles Elliott came from Ohio. D.B. Jackman, attorney-at-law settled along the Osage in 1858. H. Hickson from Ohio, settled on Mill Creek. W.R. Clyburn from Indiana settled on Drywood. The Custard Family from Pennsy. and J. B. Caldwell from the same State settled on Drywood. C. H. Haynes and family arrived in Ft. Scott, March 1858. Captain Haynes entered the service at the beginning of the war as a Lt. in the 6th Kans. and in 1862 raised and commanded Co. B, 14th Kans. He married Miss Jennie Hoyle 20 Dec 1855.

John J. Stewart, who has already been mentioned as coming here in Jan. 1856, married Miss Elizabeth Harbin in Feb. 1856. Charles W. Goodlander arrived in Ft. Scott 29 Apr. 1858. E. L. Marble and Robert Blackett were already here; George Dimon, Dick Phillips and A. F. Bicking arrived in April 1858.

The town of Cofachique existed near where Humboldt is now.

In June 1858, William Smith and wife arrived with their son William H. and daughter, Mary. The elder son, Edward A., was already here. Mr. Smith was born in Edinburgh, Scotland in 1810. He was a printer by trade and worked for some years for Harper Bros. in New York, after his arrival in this country in 1830. His wife, "Aunt Jane", was a noble christian woman. Mrs. Smith, with Mrs. Alec McDonald, organized the First Presbyterian Church in Fort Scott.

John F. White came early in June 1858 from Pennsy. Charles F. Drake arrived 17 June 1858 from Mt. Vernon, Ohio.

Fort Scott received a good increase in population during 1859. Among those coming in 1859 was Charles W. Blair. He was born in Georgetown, Ohio, Feb 5, 1829. On the 25th of Dec 1858, he married Miss Katherine Medary, daughter of Hon. Samuel Medary, who soon afterwards was appointed Governor of Kansas Terr. C. W. Blair came to Fort Scott with Hon. Andrew Ellison and they entered Law Practice together. C. W. Blair raised the First Company of Soldiers organized in Fort Scott. In the latter part of the War, he was promoted to Brigadier General at the request of U. S. Grant.

Epaphroditus Ransom died at his residence in Fort Scott 11 Nov 1859. B. B. Dillion died 16 Nov 1859.

Mr. Rankin organized a Presbyterian Church in Fort Scott, composed of John S. Caulkins, Mrs. A. McDonald and Mrs. Wm. Smith.

The town of Dayton was incorporated 18 Feb 1860. The Town Company consisted of George Stockmyer, D. J. Patterson, E. Kepley, George A. Crawford, O. Darling, C. E. Cranston, J. S. Dejernet and Amos Stewart.

The first City Election of Fort Scott was held on the second Monday of March 1860. 81 votes were cast.

Joseph Ray, as Mayor, on 10 Sept 1860, purchased the town-site of Fort Scott from the United States, consisting of 319 11/100 acres, as described in the Act of 27 Feb, incorporating it as a City. The patent afterwards described is dated July 10, 1861.

About 1 Apr 1860 a County Election was held and the following Officers were chosen; County Commissioners, Isaac Ford, Lester Ray, G. W. Miller; Probate Judge, H. Knowles; Assessor, J. N. Roach; Treasurer, J. Aitkins; Register of Deeds, W. H. Norway; Coroner, Dr. Freeman.

In May 1860, the notorious "Pickles" of Linn County, a general all around Thief, was arrested and brought to Fort Scott for trial. His real name was Wright, but he got the nick-name of "Pickles" for having stolen a two-quart jar of pickles and devoured them as he rode along. He pleaded guilty to horse stealing and was at once sentenced to the penitentiary, to avoid falling into the hands of an Osage Vigilance Committee, headed by old Billy Baker with a rope.

Pickles fared better than a man named Guthrie, who was taken from a Constable and Hanged by this Committee. They also got hold of Hugh Carlin, who had given the settlers on the Osage a good deal of trouble. In the early part of July, he was taken from the house of A. F. Monroe, without giving him time to dress.

In these Hangings a young man named L. D. Moore was particularly active as a member of the Committee. On the night of the 16 of Nov. he was visited by Jennison, with a squad of about twenty men. Upon arriving at Moore's house, Jennison kicked open the door and shot Moore before he had time to get out of bed.

Old man Scott was hung in his own door yard in the north part of the County, and the next day Rus Hines was hung near the Missouri State line.

At a meeting held at Marmaton on 14 June 1860, at which A. G. Osburn was Pres., and W. B. Griffith, Sec., it was resolved to form an Association to be known as "The Bourbon County Agricultural Society". J. M. Liggitt, A. Decker and Judge Farwell were appointed as a committee to draft a Constitution and report at the next meeting.

At the next meeting, The Bourbon County Agricultural Society was fully organized by the election of the following officers: President, Dr. A. G. Osburn; Vice-President, Richard Stadden; Secretary, Wm. R. Griffith; Treasurer, Isaac N. Mills; Executive Committee, H. C. Moore, Aaron Decker, Ezekiel Brown, Harrison Martin and S. B. Farwell.

John S. Miller and family arrived on March 5, 1860. Mr. Miller was from Penns.

Kansas was admitted as a State on January 29, 1861. It came to the fireside of the Union only to witness the frowning and wayward sisters of the South departing, one by one, across the threshold, out into the darkness - out into the coming storm.

The sixth Kansas Cavalry was organized at Fort Scott on Sep 9, 1861. W. R. Judson was Colonel. Lewis R. Jewell was First Lt. Colonel, and was killed at the Battle of Cane Hill, Ark., Nov 28, 1862. W. T. Campbell was promoted to Lt. Colonel. Wyllys C. Ransom was Major. C. O. Judson was Adjutant until March 1862. Isaac Staddon was Adjutant until August 1862. The Quartermasters were successively Geo. J. Clark, S. B. Gordon, Charles W. Jewell and Levi Bronson. Dr. John S. Medfield was Surgeon until Feb. 21, 1865, when he was mustered out and returned home. Capt. John Rogers, Captain of Co. K, was killed by bushwhackers near the south line of this County, June 2, 1864. John G. Harris, Lt. of Co. K, was badly wounded at Cane Hill, Ark. by a ball passing clear through his neck. He recovered, and was Sheriff of Bourbon Co. after the war.

Jewell County was named in honor of Col. Lewis R. Jewell when it was organized in 1867.

In the spring of 1862, a considerable force was concentrated at Fort Scott. The First and Sixth Kansas, Ninth, 12th and 13th Wisconsin, 2nd Ohio Cavalry and Capt. Rabb's 2nd Indiana Battery, the 5th Kansas Cavalry, commanded by Col. Powell Clayton, with Sam Walker as Major, and the 3rd Kansas. James Montgomery was Colonel of the 3rd Kansas but was later transferred to a colored Regiment in South Carolina.

On May 10, 1862, a small newspaper, called The Fort Scott Bulletin, was established. July 15, 1862, the first number of the Bourbon County Monitor was issued at Marmaton by David B. Emmert.

About July 1862, Rube Forbes and a man named Troy Dye robbed the store of E. S. Scott at Xenia. This caused a great commotion among the settlers and they raised a posse, headed by Captain Vansycle, late of Co. I, 6th Kansas, and Lt. Ford of the same Company. Dye got away, but they ran Forbes into a very dense brush patch about 4 miles south of Mapleton, where he was surrounded. They charged in as far as they could and fired. Rube fired back and Capt. Vansycle fell dead. He fired again and Lt. Ford fell badly wounded.

He was taken to a house about a half mile away. Soon afterwards he was taken to his home near Uniontown, where he died. At the third fire by Rube, E. C. Buck was badly wounded in the neck, and came near dying. About this time a Company of Soldiers arrived and fired a volley into the brush where Rube was, and his dead body was dragged out.

The 2nd Kansas Battery was raised in Bourbon County by W. C. Blair. The officers were: C. W. Blair, Captain; E. A. Smith, D. C. Knowles, A. G. Clark, and A. Wilson, Lieutenants. This was known through the war as Blair's Battery.

Fort Scott was voted in as the County Seat on May 16, 1863.

Fort Scott being a "Military Post, a telegraph line was constructed from Fort Leavenworth, and the people had a means of communication with the outside world, without having to depend on the often delayed trips of the old "jerky" Stage. The boys said it was a "tri-weekly" - it went out one week and tried to get back the next.

The Stage fare between Kansas City and Fort Scott was "Ten Dollars and carry a Rail". Sometimes when the roads were real good, a man passenger would only have to walk and carry a rail about a third of the way.

In the early part of 1864, several extensive fortifications were commenced, and finished that spring. These were quite heavy, well constructed earth-works. "Fort Henning" was located on Second St., between National Ave. and Judson St. "Fort Blair" was on First St. between Main St. and Scott Ave. "Fort Insley" was on the extreme point northeast of the Plaza. There were some Barracks and Fortifications commenced on the hill southeast of town, and some rifle pits on what we now call Tower Hill.

The old Government Hospital Building was used for a hospital, and the old Guard House was again utilized for the original purpose. Dr. Van Duyn was the Surgeon in charge of Hospitals at this Post during 1864.

John E. Himoe, of Mapleton, brother of Dr. S. O. Himoe, while on a trip up the Missouri River about April 1, 1864, was taken down with the smallpox. He was landed at Boonville with a nurse. While there he became delirious and one night, escaping from the house in that condition, he tried to break into a neighboring house and the man inside taking him for a burglar, shot him dead.

About the 20th of May, 1864, Henry Taylor, a noted guerrilla of Vernon County, Missouri, made a raid in the Drywood valley. He first went to the house of William Custard, about ten o'clock at night. Custard had been in bed, but by some means he got warning of their approach, and he and his brother, Rufus, made their escape.

Taylor then robbed several families and committed other depredations. Finally on his return out of the county, he went to the house of Louis L. Ury, at the place where Garland is now, and surrounded it. There were in the house, Mr. Ury, his wife, his son Joe Ury, and the young children, Newt and the two girls, Mrs. Homer Pond and Mrs. John Withers, and a Mr. T. Cartmell. Taylor had with him Mike Kelly, John Gwynn and several other prisoners that he had picked up.

MISCELLANEOUS OBITUARIES
Submitted by Edna A. Akers

Copied from Putnam County Journal, Unionville, Missouri, Friday, April 10, 1908

Jeff Anders was born in Davis county, Iowa, fifty-one years ago last September, and died at his home near Rosewood on Sunday, April 5. He came to Putnam county at the age of 17. He married Miss Jane Lynch and to this union, four children were born, namely - Henry, Mrs. Hattie McCollum, Mrs. Cordy Gray and Adda, who lives at home.

Mr. Anders is survived by two sisters, Mrs. Mary Kulp of Topeka, Kansas, and Mrs. E. C. Able of this city, and three brothers - John, who resides at Dodge City, Kansas; Harrison at Centerville, and Dave at Hooker, Oklahoma. They were all here to attend the funeral, with the exception of the latter, who is quite sick at his home.

Mr. Anders was one of our most successful farmers and was held in high esteem by all who knew him. The funeral services were held at the home Tuesday.

Michael Dailey was born near Dublin, Ireland, August 26, 1836. He, with one sister, came to America in 1851, stopping at Willmington, Ohio, till 1856, when he came to Missouri, making his home with a brother at Howland. In 1864 he married Miss Caroline O. Wylde of Howland. They made their home there until 1899, when they moved to Lemonville, having sold their farm on account of the failing health of Mr. Dailey. He has gradually failed since coming here and grew weaker till April 6, 1908, when he passed away.

He leaves a wife and adopted son, a son having died in early infancy - and a host of relatives and friends to mourn. Mr. Dailey was an upright man and highly respected. "Uncle Mike" as he was familiarly called will be missed. Although not a member of a church, he believed in Christ as our redeemer and was not afraid to die. Mr. Dailey was one of six children, only two remaining - James of Chicago and Anthony of Ireland.

He was taken to Unionville where he was laid to rest to await the coming of the resurrection and life.

Card of Thanks - To the kind friends who assisted us in the sickness and helped lay our dear one away, we wish to give our sincere thanks. Mrs. C. Dailey and son Pearle.

Copied from The Republican, Powersville, Missouri, January 26, 1898.

After long months of suffering with cancer, Dennis Daily, one of Putnam's oldest and most worthy citizens passed away at his home near Lemen, Monday, January 23. The deceased had been a resident of this county since the late '50s - for over forty years. He was about 60 years of age, and was a man of sterling integrity. A large family of children all grown to manhood and womanhood, and in good circumstances are left to mourn the loss of a kind father. The funeral was to have taken place yesterday afternoon but the roads were so utterly impassable that it was postponed until today, when the remains will be interred in the Catholic cemetery at this place.

LAURA E. BUNNEY

Mrs. Laura (Ellen) Bunney, 92, Route 7, died at 11 a.m. Saturday at the Independence Hospital, Independence, Mo., where she had been admitted as a patient this past Monday.

She had been in ill health for several years.

She was born in Springfield, Illinois, on August 6, 1877, and moved to Oswego with her parents (W. C. and Lucretia McCormick) Puffenberger in 1878. She lived in Oswego until after her marriage with George Bunney in 1912, when they moved to the Weir-Pittsburg area. (Mr. Bunney preceded her in death April 28, 1953.)

While living in Oswego, she became a registered nurse, working with a number of doctors of that area. Upon coming to the Pittsburg area, she worked for the late Dr. Montee and Dr. Conley. She did private nursing in homes in 1962, when she retired.

In 1964, she moved to Independence, Mo., and stayed there with a daughter, Mrs. Elizabeth Matson.

Survivors include two daughters, Mrs. Elizabeth Matson and Mrs. Helen Schweitzer, 105 W. Madison; one son, William C. Bunney, Route 2; 16 grandchildren; 22 great-grandchildren, and two great-great-grandchildren.

Services will be at 1 p.m. Tuesday in the Ellsworth Funeral Home with the Rev. Clifford McCall officiating.

The family will receive friends from 7:30 to 8:30 p.m. today in the Ellsworth Chapel.

Burial will be in Highland Park Cemetery.

"THINGS OF INTEREST"

Julia Woods Lavender has made a donation to our Library of two rolls of film. They are, A. T. Andreas History of Kansas, 1883, Roll 1 and 2. We know our members will find a lot of help by reading these.

Mrs. Paul Parman of Arkansas City, Kansas has presented the Library a Film of her Parrish Research. We appreciate the thoughtfulness of these members.

Several members of our Society have been busy indexing various things of interest found in our own Library. Syble Cocannouer has indexed and typed one Scrapbook of Obituaries from the Lebanon Weekly News, Lebanon, Pennsylvania, November 27, 1967 through December 31, 1969. These Obituaries were compiled by Norma Locke and her Mother Mrs. Paden, and presented to the Library. There are more to be indexed.

Diedra Chapin, Louise Brehm, Beryl Richards, Radean Garber, Vera Brown and Vera Pangburn have indexed and typed the "Sidner Family History", which had been given by Loleta Fulhage.

The Publications Department have been working on Charts for our members use as worksheets. We have the Census Charts and Pedigree Worksheets ready and will have the Family Worksheets soon. These will sell for 25¢ a dozen.

We still have back issues of our MIDWEST GENEALOGICAL REGISTER for sale. We can fill your orders for Volumes 3, 4 & 5 at $3.00 per volume. Get your orders in to Alice Weddle, Circulation Manager while you can get the complete volumes.

Remember to visit our Library at 2911 Rivera on Tuesdays 1PM to 9 PM. There are many sources of help there and people to help you if you have a Genealogical Problem.

There is always a need for material for the REGISTER, so if you have anything that you would like to have printed in the magazine get in touch with the Editor.

On a recent visit to the Attica TWP, Pleasant Ridge Cemetery we came upon something we have never seen before in this part of the country and that was the idea, and a good one, to have a glassed in case of all persons buried and on what lot they were buried. These cases, four of them were placed at the intersection of the cemetery one in each corner. You can drive in to the intersection and there you will find a case for each of the four sections of the cemetery. This Cemetery is located west of Wichita, Kansas about 15 miles.
