The Hymn

"Come, Thou Almighty King"

Giardini

Come, Thou almighty King, Help us Thy name to sing,
Help us to praise; Father, all glorious, O'er all victorious, Come and reign over us, Ancient of Days.

Come, Thou incarnate Word, Gird on Thy mighty sword,
Our prayer attend; Come, and Thy people bless, And give Thy word success; Spirit of holiness, On us descend.

To the great One in Three Eternal praises be, Hence ever more; His sovereign majesty May we in glory see, And to eternity Love and adore. Amen.

The Call to Worship

The Chaplain: The Lord is in his holy temple.

The People: Let all the earth keep silence before him.

The Chaplain: He is not far from any one of us.

The People: Let us worship him in spirit and in truth. Amen.

The Prayers

The Chaplain: O Lord, show thy mercy upon us.

The People: And Grant us thy salvation.

The Chaplain: O God, make clean our hearts within us.

The People: And take not thy Holy Spirit from us.

The Chaplain: Let us pray.

The Cadet Corps:

Eternal Father, Creator of Life and Source of Love, we offer gratitude for understanding minds and self-determining wills. Endow us with greater wisdom that we might search after God as our Guide and Friend. Give to us sense of responsibility for seeking that which is high and noble.

Keep us dissatisfied with the imperfect world in which we live, and hold before us a vision of the world as it ought to be. Direct our lives into paths of service, and inspire us with courage to stand by our convictions even in the face of danger or death. Teach us the spirit of fair play, the grace of true sportsmanship, and the virtues of honorable manhood. Deliver us from the curse of compromise with evil, tyranny, and injustice; and enable us to choose the harder path of right when we are tempted to follow the easier way of wrong. Free us from ignorance and superstition and fill our minds with truth. Grant to us a religion of confidence and joy that we may face the tasks of each day with bravery and eagerness. Let laughter live within our souls; but enable us to sympathize with suffering and grief; and may we be always ready to defend the weak and oppressed.

Make us physically pure, spiritually strong, and morally upright that we may ever maintain the integrity of the Corps, the honor of our homes and our school, a true patriotism for our country, and a right attitude toward our God and our fellowmen. We offer our prayer in the name of Christ. Amen.

The Doxology

The Responsive Reading

Rev. Franc Guthrie

My son, forget not my law; but let thine heart keep my commandments:

For length of days, and long like, and long life, and peace, shall they add to thee.

Let not mercy and truth forsake thee;
bind them about thy neck; write them
upon the tablet of thine heart;

So shalt thou find favor and good understanding in the sight of God and man.

Trust in the Lord with all thine heart;
and lean not unto thine own understanding.

In all thy ways acknowledge Him, and He shall direct thy paths.

Hymn

Lead on, O King Eternal

Smart

Lead on, O King Eternal, The day of march has come;
Hence-forth in fields of conquest Thy tents shall be our home.
Through days of preparation Thy grace has made us strong,
And now, O King Eternal, We lift our battle song.

Lead on, O King Eternal, We follow, not with fears,
For gladness breaks like morning Wher-e'er Thy face appears.
Thy cross is lifted o'er us, We journey in its light;
Thy crown awaits the conquest; Lead on, O God of might. Amen.

The Benediction

The Rev. Wm. A. Bacon

The Response

"God Be With You Till We Meet Again"

The Cadet Corps

God be with you till we meet again; By his counsels guide, uphold you, With his sheep securely fold you, God be with you till we meet again. Till we meet, Till we meet at Jesus' feet;
Till we meet, till we meet, God be with you till we meet again. Amen.
